DISL Automatic • Track 1 on Power to the People: The Mixtape Vol. 1 ↗

This that Real Hip-Hop!!! Comin' straight out the basement Rappers actin' like they stackin' but their cake is complacent
Designer fashion is the only way they makin' a statement
Cuz they faker than that mutha fuckin' paper they chasin' Fiat money ain't worth that green paper that it's printed on
Inflation will decrease it until every single cent is gone
Fuck them dead presidents
These rappers talkin' Benjamins
I'm talkin Revolution so I'm on my Thomas Jefferson!!!
Yes I am from Evanston
I rep it to the fullest
For protection from these tyrants got a weapon full of bullets
I suggest you do the same as me
These politicians say we free
But illusion of Freedom is the strongest form of slavery
The highest form of flattery
Is rappers tryin' to battle me
I take it as a compliment while countin' up the casualties
I proceed gradually
All the way to the Top with this
I hope that I can make it before the dawn of apocalypse Government officials ain't runnin' the public office
The money to fund their policies come from company lobbyists
My views are competent so I vocalize them with confidence
Use your knowledge if you just open your eyes it's obvious
The medias a way to control the mind of the audience
No Posse Comitatus they mobilizing the army in their own land
Yes they are socializing the continent
With their conglomerate
They are globalizing their dominance!!!
And it's already begun
If we don't start the Revolution it'll never be done
I suggest you invest in gold and get you a gun
Or you could wait for resurrection of the Heavenly Son
Me I'd rather take matters inside of my own hands Responsibility is a sign of a Grown Man!!!
And these dudes is kids
I disagree with their views and how they choose to live
All these rappers only talk about money and how they hold weight
Poppin' bottles fuckin' with models and how they so great Yes I realize that their mind is in a confused state
All my people we need to wake up before it's too late Booyaka!!! For weak MCs this is a Coup de Grace Who do ya think ya dealin' with no I ain't new to the Rap Game Last name Automatic First name D.I.S.L
POWER TO THE PEOPLE!!!
